TO

THE MARYLAND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

by

GOVERNOR THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Special Session, June 13, 1958

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Assembly:

You are here for specified purposes.

The law does not limit you to consideration of those measures which necessitated this convening or made it desirable.

I hope that your consciences will.

Officers of both your Houses and those others of you with whom I have had the opportunity to discuss the business-at-hand are in general
