

sioners of the county aforesaid, in the month of March last, levied a tax upon the assessable property of the whole county, in order to pay the county charges; and doubts are now entertained whether the commissioners of Anne Arundel county have authority to pay to the commissioners of Howard district, a proportion of said tax when collected, and what is the sum which the commissioners last mentioned are entitled to receive—therefore,

CHAP. 135.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas H. Dorsey, James H. Watkins and Alexander Randall; Thomas Hood, George Cooke and Edwin P. Hayden, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to ascertain the sum which remains due and unpaid, to the commissioners of the said Howard district as aforesaid; and upon the same being ascertained, the commissioners of Anne Arundel county are hereby authorised and directed to pay the same.

Commissioners appointed

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That if the commissioners so named as aforesaid, shall not be able to agree upon the sum to be paid to the commissioners of Howard district, they have authority to appoint a seventh person to decide the matters in dispute, between the commissioners above appointed; and upon a determination being had in the premises, a certificate of the proceedings of said commissioners, and their determination as aforesaid, shall be filed with the clerk of the commissioners of Howard district, and a copy thereof shall be transferred to the clerk of the commissioners of Anne Arundel county, to be filed by him with the papers and proceedings of the said commissioners.

Shall appoint a seventh person in case of disagreement.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the commissioners before named, shall receive the same compensation for their services, which is now allowed to the commissioners of tax for Anne Arundel county and Howard district; and that Anne Arundel county and Howard district, shall each pay one half of the expense.
