

CHAPTER 150.

CHAP. 151.

An act to allow Samuel Fowler, former Sheriff of Prince George's County, further time to complete his collections. Passed Feb. 26, 1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authority given
That Samuel Fowler, former sheriff of Prince George's county, and his deputies, or any agent by him appointed, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to collect and receive all and every balance or amount of officers fees, chancery taxes and fines and forfeitures, and all other sums, that may be due and owing to the said Fowler, as sheriff aforesaid, or to his deputies, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the term of office of the said Fowler, as sheriff aforesaid, had not expired; provided, that if any person against whom there is a claim by said Fowler, as sheriff as aforesaid, or either of his deputies, shall make affidavit before a justice of the peace of said county, that the same has been paid at any previous time, it shall prevent the said Fowler and his deputies from collecting said claim, in the manner prescribed by law for collecting such claims; but that he shall have power to collect them as small debts are now collected; and provided also, that nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to effect the estate of a deceased person, except to authorise the said Fowler or his deputies, to recover any claim or balance due by a deceased person, in the same manner that claims against deceased persons are now recovered by law; and provided also, that this act shall only continue in force until April, eighteen hundred and forty-two.
