

CHAP. 155. county, and by him accounted for and paid into the State treasury.

In case of refusal to show license

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any hawker or pedlar, who may be found trading, bartering or selling, or offering to trade, barter or sell any goods, wares or merchandize, as aforesaid, without having his, her or their license with him, her or them, at the time, or who shall refuse, on request of any sheriff or constable, to show his, her or their license, shall be considered as committing a violation of this act.

Compensation of sheriff, &c

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for every apprehension and conviction under this act, the sheriff or constable, or any other person apprehending, shall be entitled to receive the sum of three dollars, to be recovered as part of the costs.

Clerks to pay over money received by them for licenses

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all sums of money received by the clerks of the county courts of this State, for the granting of licenses under the provisions of this act, shall be by them, respectively, accounted for, and paid over to the treasurer of the shore where the said licenses were granted, in the same manner as is now required by law.

Clerks compensation

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the clerk of any county court, who may be required to grant a license, under the provisions of this act, to any hawker or pedlar, shall be entitled to receive the sum of one dollar, to be paid to him by the said hawker or pedlar, for each and every license so granted.

Inconsistent laws repealed

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all such acts or parts of acts, which are repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 155.

Passed Feb. 26, 1841.

An act to direct the manner in which the Agents to represent the State in all Joint Stock Companies, in which the State has an interest, shall hereafter be appointed.

Legislature annually to appoint 5 agents

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the Legislature, on concurrent vote of the two houses, to appoint during the present session, and annually thereafter, five suitable persons, a majority of whom shall represent the State at all