

CHAP. 162. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for said trustees to regulate and fix the tuition money for the admission of pupils at said school, having due regard to the ability of the parents or guardians of the children who may apply for admission to said school, to pay the same; and that they be authorised and required, when the parent or guardian is unable to pay any thing for the education of his child or children, to admit such child or children into said school, free from charge; and that they be also required to admit in like manner to said school, all children who have no means of educating themselves, and who are without parents or guardians.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees are authorised to receive into said school any child or children who may not live in said district, upon such terms as they may prescribe; provided, that in the opinion of said trustees and teacher, the interest of the pupils within the district, will not be prejudiced.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the inhabitants of said school district shall have and enjoy all such benefits and privileges as are afforded to the inhabitants of other primary school districts, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall be null and void, unless it is accepted and approved of at a general meeting of the taxable inhabitants of the said district, on or before the first day of April next, of the time and place of which meeting, two weeks notice shall be given in the nearest newspaper, and also set up at two or more public places within said district, and the site for the school house within said district; shall be fixed upon by a majority of the inhabitants at said general meeting.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all acts of Assembly, or parts of acts, which are inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 162.

Passed Feb. 27, 1841. An act, entitled an act to consolidate the Free School Fund, the State's Donation, and the Surplus Revenue Fund, so far as relates to District School, number three, in the upper district of Caroline County, and for other purposes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the orphan's court of Caroline county be, and they or any one of Trustees to fix tuition money

of the said school
this they must
If parent of any child be unable to pay

Children may be admitted who live out of said school district

Rights secured

This act to be void if not accepted

To fix upon a site for house

Repealed

Orphans court to pay trustees school No. 3, their portion