SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners appointed by this act, may sell for such sums of money as they may deem proper, the scheme aforesaid; and the purchasers thereof, and their assigns, shall have and enjoy all the rights and privileges in the disposal of the tickets in said scheme, and the raising money therefrom, as are by this act conferred on said commissioners; provided however, that before such purchasers or assigns shall avail themselves of said scheme, they shall enter into bond to the State of Maryland, with sureties to be approved, and in penalty to be fixed by said commissioners of lotteries, or any one of them, for the punctual payment of all prizes that shall be drawn to such tickets; and the bond shall be filed, and may be sued as provided in cases of said bond of said commissioners; and said commissioners shall make report, verified by affidavit, immediately upon making sale of said scheme as aforesaid, particularly certifying the amount and terms of such sale, and to whom sold; and provided, that the said commissioners shall pay into the treasury five per centum upon the whole amount raised under and by virtue of this act.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners shall, in place of selling said scheme, sell the tickets therein, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to pay the prizes which may be drawn to such tickets; which obligation shall be deemed to be within condition of their bond aforesaid.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the money raised under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall be paid over to, and received by the Hydrant Company of Port Tobacco, to be by said company applied towards defraying the expense of introducing a supply of wholesome water in said town.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act, and all the privileges, franchises and rights conferred hereby, shall expire and cease to be exercised at the expiration of the year eighteen hundred and forty-five, or at the time when all other grants by the State shall expire.
