

CHAP. 192. Neck, in Kent county, and by the same name shall have perpetual succession.

May purchase
20 acres land

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to purchase, receive and hold, by deed of conveyance, in fee, executed, acknowledged and recorded according to law, any lot or parcel of ground lying in Quaker Neck, in Kent county, not exceeding in quantity twenty acres, in trust, for the use and benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Quaker Neck, in Kent county.

Conveyance to be made

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any one surviving trustee of the five trustees of said Quaker Neck Church, to whom certain property or real estate was conveyed, in trust, for the use and benefit of said church, by a certain Ann Thomas, by deed bearing date on or about the twenty-first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-two, and duly recorded amongst the land records of Kent county, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to convey the said lot or parcel of ground, with the buildings which are thereon erected and being, unto the trustees and their successors herein incorporated, for the use and benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Quaker Neck, in Kent county; and such deed, when acknowledged and recorded according to law, shall be as valid and effectual as if executed and acknowledged by a majority of said trustees.

CHAPTER 192.

Passed Mar. 2, 1841. An act to locate a School in the Lower District of Caroline County, to be called the Fowling Creek School House.

Commissioners named

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jno. Stephens, senior, John Stack, William R. Andrews, John Rumbold and John C. Blades, be appointed commissioners to locate a school near Fowling Creek, in Caroline county, and have power to contract for the building of a good and substantial school house, and shall be called the Fowling Creek School House.

Cost of building house: how paid

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That after the completion of the building of said school house in good workmanlike manner, the cost and price thereof shall be paid by the orphans' court of said county to said commissioners, out of the surplus school fund belonging to said district; and the