

CHAP. 233. who shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, vote on all questions before them, and remain in office until superseded by the appointment of a new president, after a new election of commissioners.

Vacancies

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any of the commissioners during the year for which they were elected, should die, resign, remove from said village, or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held, at which all persons qualified shall be entitled to vote.

In case election be not held

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That should the inhabitants at any time neglect to make an election at the times required by this act, the power of electing commissioners shall not therefore cease; but the right and power of said inhabitants of said village in that respect, shall continue the same as though such election had been made; and the president and commissioners for the time being, shall continue and remain in office until such election shall be held.

Limits of town described

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of said Jeffersonville shall commence at the southwest corner of William Coffield's lot on the Susquehanna river, thence up said river binding on the same until it intersects the north boundary line of Joshua Green's lot, thence east five hundred yards, thence south parallel with first line, and for the same distance thence to the place of beginning.

Clerk: his compensation, &c.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper; and that all ordinances passed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall by their clerk be entered in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of said village.

Authority to build wharves

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power and authority to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the erecting or building of wharves in said village; to regulate the mooring of rafts, arks and boats, and to prevent all nuisances and obstructions from being placed on the waters of said river Susquehanna in front of said village.

May levy a tax not over 30 cts. in the $100

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have full power and authority to levy and collect taxes in said village, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the hundred dollars on the assessable property of said village; and for the purpose of making said levy, they shall once in every three years, or oftener if they think proper,
