

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That where the collector shall expose to sale any tract or tracts of land, parcel or parcels, lot or lots of land as aforesaid, for which there is no bidder or bidders, he shall return to the commissioners at their next meeting thereafter, a list of such tract or tracts of land, parcel or parcels, lot or lots of land, and the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall cause a copy of said list, together with the amount of taxes and all costs respectively due on such lands, and the name or names of the owner or owners thereof, to be delivered to the collector of the taxes for the ensuing year, who shall be authorised to sell the same, after the same manner and according to the regulations prescribed for the annual sales under this act, and the same when sold, to transfer by deed of bargain and sale, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

CHAP. 234.

Where no bid shall be received, return to be made to commissioners

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of any collector, his successor shall go on and complete the sale or other proceedings enjoined upon the collector by this act, in the same manner as though he had commenced the same, or no such vacancy had occurred in the office of collector.

If collector die

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for Allegany county aforesaid, who reside out of the town of Cumberland, shall be allowed twelve and a half cents per mile from their place of residence to Cumberland, for going to any regular, stated, adjourned or other meeting of said commissioners, and the like sum for returning from the same; such allowance to be made only for once going and returning to and from each meeting.

Commissioners mileage

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That an act entitled an act for the more effectual collection of the county charges in Allegany county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter three hundred and thirty-four; and also an act with the same titling, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-six, chapter eight, and the several supplements thereto, be and the same are hereby repealed; provided, this act shall not take effect before the first day of September next.

Inconsistent acts repealed