

Chap. Sec.

COUNTY COURTS—To prescribe, by rule of court, the manner of dismissing suits, by parties or their attorney, during recess, &c. 96 2

When infants defendants in any suit, on the equity side of, have been summoned to appear, the clerk of such court is authorised to issue commission, &c. to assign guardian for said infant defendants, and take their answer, &c. 109 1

Any sale made and reported during the recess of the court, by trustees, under decree of any county court, &c. on being filed, &c. shall stand for final ratification, without procuring a nisi order, if notice of motion be entered, &c. 110 2

In cases of petition, &c. for sale of the real estates of infants, &c. the clerks of, shall have power to issue commissions to view and value the lands, assign guardian, &c. " 3

Whenever any cause, by bill, &c. pending in any, &c. shall be ready, &c. and the parties, &c. shall sign an agreement, &c. that the case be submitted, &c. to any of the judges, &c. such judge to pass decree, &c. " 4

Whenever any cause in, &c. shall be ready for commission to take testimony, &c. the clerks of, to issue commissions to such persons as parties may select, by agreement, to be filed, &c. " 5

To have jurisdiction in all cases in equity, where proceedings shall be commenced in the court of the county where the land may lie, &c. or in the court of the county where defendants may reside, &c.; but if proceeding be commenced in a county where the land does not lie, the clerk of the court to transmit to the clerk of the county where the land may lie, a copy of the proceedings, &c. " 6

Fees of auditors of, &c. the same as those of auditor in chancery, " 7

The county courts of the fourth judicial district authorised to cause notice to be