

Sec.

Chap. Sec.

given to persons interested in any suit pending, &c. to shew cause why, by a certain day, such suit should not be stricken of, &c.; may cause such suits to be reinstated, upon cause shewn,

169

CORPORATIONS—See Uniontown Academy; Library Company of the Baltimore Bar; New Windsor Library Company; Frostburg; United Seminary in Carroll County; Washington Temperance Society; Port Deposit Library Association; Maryland College of Pharmacy; St. John's Literary Institution; Saint Vincent of Paul's, &c. Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maryland; Jackson Beneficial Society of Baltimore, German Herman Beneficial Society of Baltimore; Jerusalem; Library Association in the Town of Jefferson; Western Beneficial Society; Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company of Baltimore; Chosen Friends Lodge, No. 34, O. I. O. Fellows; Christ Church Asylum; Methodist Episcopal Church, Frederick; Baltimore Hebrew and English Benevolent Academical Association; Blacksmiths, Engineers, Machinists and Millwrights Society of Baltimore; Morning Star Lodge No. 20, I. O. O. F.; Howard Temperance Society of Fell's Point; Powhattan Steamboat Company; Newington Beneficial Society of Baltimore; Carroll Co'ty Lyceum; Methodist Episcopal Church Quaker Neck; Franklin Beneficial Total Abstinence Society, Fell's Point; Eastern Hotel Company of Cumberland; Cumberland Coal and Iron Company; Grove School House; Trustees of Washington Academy; Potomac Coal and Iron Company; Jeffersonville; St. Joseph's Beneficial Society of Baltimore.

COURT HOUSE ALLEY—Commissioners appointed to open, in Cumberland, &c.

219

COURTS OF EQUITY—High court of chancery and the several county courts, as, to have con-