CHAPTER 32.

Passed Jan. 27, 1841. An act to incorporate the Maryland College of Pharmacy.

WHEREAS, it is the duty of every good government to protect as far as in it lies, its citizens from those ills and dangers to which they become exposed in the multiplied relations of society, by promoting and encouraging wholesome institutions and regulations calculated to advance the well being, security and interests of the community; and it being represented to the Legislature that an institution has been established in the city of Baltimore called the Maryland College of Pharmacy, for the purpose of cultivating, improving and making known a knowledge of pharmacy and its collateral branches of science, and of giving instruction in the same by public lectures—therefore,

Individuals incorporated SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas G. Mackenzie, George W. Andrews, Robert H. Coleman, Benjamin Rush Roberts, David Stewart, Henry B. Atkinson and William H. Balderston, together with such other individuals as may hereafter become members of said college, be and they are hereby incorporated by the name of the Maryland College of Pharmacy, and they are hereby declared to be one community, corporation and body politic, by which name they shall be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity, and in all actions whatsoever, and also to have a common seal, and the same to change, break, alter or renew at pleasure; and they shall have power to establish by-laws and orders for the regulation of their institution; provided, the same be not repugnant to the constitu-
