

	Chap.	Sec.
MARRIED WOMEN—May insure lives of husbands, &c.,	212
MARSHALL, WM. H.—Authorised to bond as sheriff of Worcester county, at any time before the tenth of February, eighteen hundred and forty-one, &c.	106
MARTIN, SARAH—Divorced, a mensa et thoro ,	203
MARYLAND COLLEGE OF PHARMACY—Incorporated,	32
MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE— To provide by ordinance or otherwise, for the prompt collection of taxes due to the city of Baltimore, &c., See Wood Hucksters .	63
To levy and collect on every thousand feet of lumber floated or arriving in the Port of Baltimore, a sum not exceeding thirty cents per thousand feet board measure, &c., and not less than fifteen cents, &c., excepting lumber floated in, for the purpose of being sawed, &c.,	206
M'COY, SARAH ANN—Divorce a vinculo matrimonii ,	205
M'KEWEN, MARY—Divorced, a vinculo matrimonii ,	188
MEEKS, AQUILLA NAPOLEON HOWARD—Name changed to Howard Meeks,	60
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN FREDERICK—Incorporated,	125
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Liberty Circuit—The trustees of, authorised to hold certain property for the purposes declared in the deeds from Joseph Lathan, to Nicholas Snethen and others, and Rachel Hammond to Nicholas Snethen, &c.	129
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, in Quaker Neck, Kent county,—Trustees of, incorporated, &c.,	191
MILITIA. In every case where it is made the duty of any officer of, to make return of division, &c. to the Adjutant General, and such officer may have omitted to make such return when last due, Adjutant General to issue an order, stating the nature of return omitted, and name of the officer, &c.	259	1