

	Chap.	Sec.
WHEELER, EDWARD R.—Bond of, executed and approved, &c. to be as valid, &c. as if executed as required by the existing general law of the State,	4	2
WHITE, MARGARETTA—Divorced, a vinculo matrimonii,		170
WILHELM, ABRAHAM—An act to enable him to complete his collections,		36
WITNESSES—See Talbot County .
WOLVES, PANTHERS AND FOXES—An act for the more effectual destruction of, in Alleghany county, &c.		56
WOOD CORDER—See Port Deposit .
WOOD HUCKSTERS—Not to retail, &c. fire wood, on any wharf in Baltimore, without a license from the mayor, &c.	190	1
Masters, &c. of vessels, not prohibited to sell without license, &c.	“	2
Monies collected for licenses, after deducting expenses for collection and twenty-five per cent. for the use of the mayor, &c. to be paid over to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, if said licenses be granted for the use of the State,	“	3
For violation of this act, upon conviction, to be fined $100, one half to the State, the other half to the person who shall present, &c.	“	4
No permit or license to continue for more than one year,	“	5
WOOLFORD, JOHN, and others—Names changed to Keene, John, &c.	193
WORCESTER COUNTY—The place for holding elections in the fifth, or Parson's district in, to be at the tenement occupied by B. L. Fish, Esq. in Salisbury, &c.		151
Trustees of the poor of, to contract with the overseer, in the month of August, instead of May, &c.		157
Commissioners of, to appropriate any sum required by the board of primary education for, of not more than $4,000 any one year; said board of primary education		