

CHAP. 9.

Jr. and Edward Sturgeon, are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out and open a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, from the public house of John J. Heckart to intersect the public road leading from Perryville to Port Deposit, near Gurleystown, in Cecil county.

Levy authorised

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Cecil county are hereby authorised and empowered, at their discretion, on receiving from said road commissioners, or a majority of them, an account, on oath, of the expenses of surveying, laying out and opening said road, including two dollars per day to the road commissioners for their services, to levy the same at their next annual levy, provided the sum does not exceed one hundred dollars on the assessable property of said county, to be collected as other county charges are now collected.

Shall ascertain damages

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the aforementioned commissioners shall value and ascertain the damages that may be sustained by any person or persons through whose land the said road may be made to pass; and that the damages so ascertained, shall be levied, assessed and collected as other county charges now are; and that in estimating the amount of damages, the advantages of said road shall be taken into consideration.

And make out plat

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall cause to be made out a plat of the said road, which plat shall be returned by them to the clerk of Cecil county, to be recorded among the records of said county.

Oath of office

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, before they proceed to act, shall take an oath or affirmation before some justice of the peace, that they will, without favor, partiality or prejudice, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons through whose land the said road may pass, if said persons shall claim damages.

CHAPTER 9.

Passed Mar. 29, 1841. A further supplement to the act to incorporate the Upper Marlbro' Academy, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and four.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the trustees of Upper Marlbro' Academy are willing that the buildings of the said academy shall be used and occupied as a free school, on condition that they are paid such sum therefor as would be necessarily expended
