

in the erection of a free school in said town, under the provisions of the act to establish primary schools in Prince George's county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven:

CHAP. 10.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever the trustees of the Upper Marlbro' Academy shall certify to the trustees of the free school fund of Prince George's county that they have accepted of the provisions of this act, and the act to which this is a further supplement, and have made their said academy a free school or academy, it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the free school fund of said county, and they are hereby authorised and required, to draw on the judges of the orphans' court of said county for such sum or sums of money, not exceeding the sum or price paid by them for the erection of any other free school in said county, payable to the order of the trustees of the said academy; which said draft shall be paid by the said judges of the orphans' court, out of the free school fund of said county, now on deposit in said orphans' court.

Upon acceptance of this act and supplement trustees to draw on orphans' ct. for money, &c.

CHAPTER 10.

An act to incorporate the West River Academy.

Passed Mar. 30, 1841.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Doctor Martin Fenwick, Henry A. Hall, Alexander I. Murray, John G. Rogers, Sprigg Harwood, Henry Owens and Francis Bird, be and they are hereby appointed trustees of an academy established at Owensville, in Anne Arundel county, and to be called the West River Academy; and that said trustees and their successors shall be, and they are hereby established and declared to be one community, corporation or body politic, with perpetual succession in fact and in law, to all purposes connected with the said institution, and shall bear the name and style of the Trustees of the West River Academy; and by the said name and title, the said trustees and their successors shall be competent and capable at law or in equity, to take and to hold to themselves and their successors, for the use of said academy, any estate in lands, tenements, goods and chattels, monies, stocks or effects, by the gift, conveyance, devise or bequest of any person whatever, and the same to convey, lease land, or otherwise dispose of for the

Trustees named

Incorporated

Name and style

Hold property