

- CHAP. 11. use of said academy, in such manner as to them, or a quorum of them, shall seem most beneficial to the institution.
- Legal capacity SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall be capable of suing and being sued, at law or in equity, and of having and using one common seal, and the same at their pleasure to break, alter or renew.
- Corporate powers SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a quorum of them, shall have power, from time to time, to appoint professors, teachers and assistants, for instructing the students of said academy in the languages, and in such branches of education as they shall deem it proper to have taught therein; and to make all such laws, ordinances, rules and regulations for the good government of said academy, and the instruction of the students therein, and for the direction, visitation and examination of said students as shall, in their opinion, promote the objects of the institution, the same not being repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State; and also to regulate thereby the time of meeting of said trustees, and the duties of each professor, teacher or assistant.
- Quorum SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That a majority of said trustees shall be, and are hereby declared to be a quorum, and are hereby empowered to meet at said academy, or any place by them to be designated, and when so assembled, shall do any act, matter or thing which the whole number of trustees might do were they present or attending, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 11.

Passed Mar. 31, 1841. An act to divorce Anne Gilham, alias Gillam, of Anne Arundel County, from her husband Thomas Gilham, alias Gillam.

- Divorced SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Anne Gilham, alias Gillam, of Anne Arundel county, be, and she is hereby divorced from her husband Thomas Gilham, alias Gillam, a mensa et thoro.
- Rights secured SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all the estate, both real and personal, of which the said Anne Gilham is now seized or possessed, or to which her husband, the said Thomas Gilham is, or might be entitled by virtue of their intermar-