

CHAPTER 16.

CHAP. 17.

A supplement to the act, entitled an act to incorporate the Patapsco Insurance Company. Passed April 3, 1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Supplement extended to enable said company to wind up and settle its concerns, the act to which this a supplement, be and the same is hereby continued, and shall remain in force, until the first day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, and until the end of the session of the General Assembly which shall be next thereafter; provided, that nothing here- Proviso in contained, shall be construed to authorise said corporation to make any insurances whatever, nor to lend money on bottomry or respondentia.

CHAPTER 17.

An act to utter the division line between the third and seventh Election Districts of Carroll County. Passed April 2, 1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the boundary Division line changed line between the third and seventh election districts, in Carroll county, shall be altered; and that the following be and the same is hereby made the boundary line between the Line described same: beginning on the natural boundary, at the intersection of Big Pipe creek, in Peter Bixter's meadow, and running thence by a direct line to Jacob Frock's dwelling house, leaving the same in the seventh election district, thence by a direct line to Adam and William Bishes' dwelling house, leaving the same in the seventh election district, and thence to the Westminster and Little's town turnpike road, at the intersection of the stone road, which is now the boundary line between the third and seventh election districts; and those citizens of Carroll county, who live in the third election district as altered by this law, shall vote where the polls are, or may be held, in the said third district; and those residing in the seventh election district, as altered by this law, shall vote where the polls are or may be held in the said seventh district.