

the first Monday in April, annually thereafter, an alphabetical list of the owners of property assessed by virtue of this act, together with the amount of his, her or their assessments, respectively answering to his or her name, which said lists shall be deposited in the offices of the several county courts of this State, and the office of the clerk of Howard district, and it shall be the duty of the said clerks to keep the same in some conspicuous place in his office, for the inspection and perusal of any person or persons of his county interested therein, without fee or reward.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the levy courts and commissioners of the several counties, and of Howard district, shall assemble at their usual places of meeting, on the second Monday in November next, and there continue in session, not exceeding twenty nor less than six consecutive days, Sunday's excepted, having first given at least three weeks notice of said time, for hearing appeals, in some newspaper or newspapers, if any, published in said county or city; and set up a notice at three of the most public places in said county or said city, and if no newspaper be published in said county or district, then by advertisement, set up at the court house door and other public places in said county or district, to hear and determine the complaints and appeals of persons who may consider themselves aggrieved by the valuation of said assessors; and upon complaint of any person who may consider him or herself aggrieved by such valuation of his or her property, or that of any person under his or her charge, the said levy court or commissioners, as the case may be, shall have full power and authority to examine any person or persons, and the party complaining, on oath or affirmation, as the case may be, touching the particulars or value of such property, and upon due examination or knowledge thereof, abate or increase the said valuation, and correct the return accordingly; and may likewise exclude entirely, property which has been valued, and may value property which hath been by the assessors excluded; and for the more expeditious collection in the city of Baltimore, of the tax provided to be raised by this act, the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall be authorised and required annually, to appoint a board to consist of at least three persons, to be styled the appeal tax court, who shall meet on the second Monday in November next, and continue in session for twenty consecutive days, Sunday's excepted, and upon whom shall devolve all the duties conferred by this act upon

Levy courts, &c. to give notice of their time of meeting to hear appeals

Manner of determining appeals

Mayor, &c. to appoint appeal tax court for Balt. city

Their duties