

CHAP. 23. levy courts and commissioners in the several counties, and in Howard district, and to the said appeal tax court, to be preserved by them; and the said levy courts and commissioners at their regular meetings to be held for the purpose of assessing the public charges in the year eighteen hundred and forty-two, shall review the valuations so as aforesaid made to and adjusted by them, and correct the same if need be, in conformity with the opinions which may be expressed by the Court of Appeals; and it shall likewise be the duty of the appeal tax court, previous to the levy for the year eighteen hundred and forty-two being made by the mayor and city council of Baltimore, to review and correct, if necessary, the valuations as aforesaid made in conformity with the opinions which may be expressed by the Court of Appeals, and report the same to the mayor and city council.

SEC. 35. And be it enacted, That the costs of sending up the transcript of valuations on any appeal as aforesaid shall be defrayed by the respective counties, or by the city of Baltimore; and that all other costs incurred in the Court of Appeals, on said appeals, excepting legal or other fees to the attornies or counsel for the appellants on appeals taken by individuals, or for the appellees on any appeal taken by the State, shall be paid, upon the requisition of the Governor, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

SEC. 36. And be it enacted, That if in consequence of the opinions expressed by the Court of Appeals, any correction shall be made in the valuation of property in any county, or Howard district, or the city of Baltimore, the proper clerk shall, as soon as practicable after such corrections shall have been made, prepare one other corrected summary account or list, in columns, in which shall be clearly and distinctly expressed the estates and property of every sort and description whatsoever, and the value thereof affixed to them, respectively, and the whole value in each district extended, and the amount of each column; and shall lay the same before the levy court or commissioners, as the case may be, who shall, after examination and correction thereof, sign and enclose the same, endorsed on public service, to the Treasurer for the Western or Eastern Shore, as the case may be; and the appeal tax court shall likewise perform the same duties, and in like manner sign and enclose the same.

SEC. 37. And be it enacted, That the Register of the Land Offices on the Western and Eastern Shores respectively, shall annually hereafter, between the first day of Ja-

Correction to be made if required

Cost of prosecuting appeals: how defrayed

If correction be made, clerk to make another summary account, &c.

Registers Land Offices to report certificates ready for patents