

CHAP. 33. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Declared valid That the deed so made and executed by the vestry and wardens of Christ Church Parish, in Calvert county, to the said Thomas I. Hellen, in and to said tract or parcel of land now called and known by the name of the Glebe, shall stand good, both in law and equity, to him, the said Thomas I. Hellen, his heirs or assigns, forever.

CHAPTER 32.

Passed April 6, 1841, An act for the relief of Counter Securities of Executors and Administrators.

On application of orphans' court to demand further security If such security be not given

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That upon an application to the orphans' court of any county, by any person who has become the counter security of an executor or administrator, setting forth that he conceives him or herself in danger of suffering from said securityship, such orphans' court shall have power to call upon such executor or administrator, to give other security, to be approved by the court; and in the event of failure by the executor or administrator to give such security, the same proceedings shall be had, in order to have the assets still remaining in the hands of such executor or administrator, delivered up, as are prescribed by the act of seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, chapter one hundred and one, sub-chapter fourteen, section eleven; and the said counter security shall have the same remedies that are given to, and perform the same duties as are required by the act aforesaid from an original security, and shall also be subject to the same suits, and have the same remedies in law.
