

WILLIAM GRASON, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

1840.

CHAPTER 53.

CHAP. 54.

A supplement to an act to extend the charters of the several Banks in the City of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter two hundred and seventy-four.

Passed Feb. 8,
1841.

WHEREAS, by the sixth section of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, to which this act is a supplement, the several Banks therein named, were required to transmit to the Governor and Council, to be filed in the executive department, a copy of a resolution therein mentioned, certified under the common seal of the corporations mentioned in said original act; and whereas, such resolutions so filed have been mislaid, and it is fit that the evidence of the existence of the corporate franchises of those institutions should be definitively ascertained and settled—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the several banks referred to in the act to which this is a supplement, at any time before the first day of August next, to transmit to the Governor, to be filed in the executive department, a copy of the resolution in said original act mentioned, certified as required by said act.

To transmit resolution to Governor before 1st Aug. next

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the filing of said resolution, by the first day of August next, shall be as effectual as if the same had been filed within the time required by said original act.

Valid if filed

CHAPTER 54.

An act for the benefit of Anne S. Hieliman.

Passed Feb. 9,
1841.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Anne S. Hieliman of Washington county, be and she is hereby authorised and empowered to record in the office of the clerk of Washington county, the name of a certain negro slave Dolly, and that the recording of the said negro slave shall have as full force and effect in law, as if the same had been done within the time required by the act of Assembly, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter fifteen; provided, the name of the said slave shall be recorded within thirty days after the passage of this act; and provided also, that all the other
