

Chap. Sec.

or by the appeal tax court at the time appointed for hearing appeals, in the same manner as other persons whose property is required to be valued by the assessors,	23	26
VALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF PROPERTY IN THIS STATE —Levy courts and appeal tax court to direct their clerk to enter in a book, &c. an accurate account of all property, &c. within their county, &c. and an alphabetical list, &c.; to allow such compensation to their clerks as they may deem right,	“	27
The clerk of the levy court and commissioners of each county, &c. and appeal tax court, on or before the 1st December, &c. to make out from the assessors statements, &c. a summary account or list, or columns, in which to be expressed the estates and property of any sort, and the value thereof affixed, and the whole value in each district extended, and the amount of each column, and lay the same before the levy court, &c. who after examination shall sign and enclose the same, endorsed “on public service,” to the treasurer W. S.; and appeal tax court to perform the same duties, &c.	“	28
Any person aggrieved by decision of levy court, &c. or appeal tax court, on any question arising upon the review of the valuation, whereby property is valued which in his opinion ought not to be valued, or where by any property is excluded which said person claims ought to be valued, such person may prosecute an appeal from the decision aforesaid to next term of court of Appeals for W. or E. Shore, &c.; and upon any appeal, &c. the clerk of appeal tax court to make out a copy of valuation, &c. to be transmitted to the clerk of the court of Appeals for the W. or E. Shore, as the case may be,	“	29
The person appealing to be treated as appellant in court of Appeals, and the levy court, &c. as appellee, and to appear by		