

to an allowance from said county of thirty dollars for every wolf, beyond the age of six months at the time of its being so killed or destroyed; of twelve dollars for every wolf under the age of six months at the time of its being so killed or destroyed; and of five dollars for every panther so killed or destroyed, and of one dollar for every fox, beyond the age of six months at the time of its being so killed or destroyed, and of fifty cents for every fox, under the age of six months, so killed or destroyed.

CHAP. 56.
$12 if under Panthers $5
Foxes $1

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in order to the obtention of such allowance, it shall be necessary for the person so killing or destroying any wolf, panther or fox, within the limits of Allegany county, to produce the head of the same, before some justice of the peace for said county, and at the time of producing the head of the same, to make oath or affirmation, that the said wolf, panther or fox, was taken and killed within the limits of Allegany county, within six days next before the production of said head before the said justice; and the said justice shall thereupon give to the person producing it, a certificate that such head was produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above-mentioned oath or affirmation, taken before him at the time of its production; and if it be a wolf's head, or a fox's head, it shall be the duty of said justice to determine whether said wolf or fox, was at the time of its destruction, above or under the age of six months; and if above the age of six months, to also state in his certificate that the head produced was the head of an old wolf or fox; or if under the age of six months, that it was the head of a young wolf or fox; and it shall also be the duty of said justice, at the time of giving said certificate, to destroy any such head so produced, so as to prevent any second allowance therefor.

Head to be produced before a magistrate
And make oath
Duty of magistrate
Head to be destroyed

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the production of any said certificate, the commissioners of Allegany county shall be, and they are hereby authorised and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county, the above-mentioned allowance of thirty dollars for every old wolf, twelve dollars for every young wolf, five dollars for every panther, one dollar for every old fox, and fifty cents for every young fox, for the use of the person producing the same; and that it shall be the duty of the collector of said county, in whose hands the said levy may be placed, to collect and pay over the same to the person entitled, in the same manner as other public dues are collected and paid over; and the party shall have the same remedy for the recovery of

Amount to be levied
How collected
May recover