

CHAPTER 6.

CHAP. 7.

An act to extend the act to allow Henry L. Coombs, late Collector of Prince George's County, further time to complete his collections.

Passed Jan. 5, 1841.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act, entitled an act to allow Henry L. Coombs, late collector of Prince George's county, further time to complete his collections, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter two hundred and fifty-four, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of May, eighteen hundred and forty-two.

Time extended

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the administratrix of the said Henry L. Coombs, and such agents or deputies as she may appoint, shall have all the rights and powers under the said act in making said collections, that were enjoyed by the said Henry L. Coombs.

Power to collect reserved

CHAPTER 7.

An act to authorise the Orphans' Court of Montgomery County to permit Eleanor Chiswell, widow of John A. Chiswell, deceased, to erect a dwelling house on the real estate of said Chiswell.

Passed Jan. 7, 1841.

WHEREAS, Eleanor Chiswell, widow and administratrix of John A. Chiswell, late of Montgomery county, deceased, hath, by her petition to this General Assembly, represented that the dwelling house occupied by the said deceased at the time of his death, and subsequently by her and the minor children of the said deceased, is wholly unfit for their residence with due regard to health and comfort, and that the same is incapable of repair, and hath prayed the passage of an act authorising the orphans' court of Montgomery county to permit her to build, at the joint expense of herself and children, such a dwelling as shall be suited to the wants and comfort of the family of the said deceased, and the prayer of her petition being reasonable—therefore,

Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the orphans' court of Montgomery county be authorised and empowered, if in their judgment the interest of the minor children of the said John A. Chiswell would be

Orphans' court may grant authority to erect buildings