CHAPTER 95.

A further supplement to the act, entitled an act, in aid of the construction of a State Armory and Town Hall, in the City of Baltimore, and the rebuilding and improvement of the Hanover Market House, in said city.

Passed Feb. 8, 1841.

WHEREAS, by a former supplement to the said original act, Solomon Hillen, junr., one of the commissioners therein named, was released from liabilities on the bonds which he had executed upon the conditions specified in said supplement; and whereas, it is represented that the said Solomon Hillen, junr., has complied with the provisions of the former supplement to the said original act—Therefore,

Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Baltimore county court, or any judge thereof, is hereby authorised to order and adjudge that all bonds heretofore executed by the said Solomon Hillen, junr. in virtue of the said original act, shall be cancelled, so far as the same concerns the said Hillen; and upon the passing of such order by the said court or judge, the bond or bonds therein specified, shall be forthwith cancelled, so far as the same relates to the said Hillen; and the said Hillen shall be released from all liability whatsoever on said bond or bonds; provided, the said court or judge, as the case may be, shall be satisfied that the said Hillen has resigned the office of commissioner, under the said original act; and shall be fur-
