

CHAPTER 133.

CHAP. 134.

A supplement to the act to regulate Gates in Kent County, passed at the adjourned session of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter three hundred and fifty-seven. Passed Feb 24, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the levy court of Kent county, upon application, to authorize the erection of gates upon the public roads in said county, upon the person paying the tax for such gate or gates, as is levied by the act, to which this is a supplement; provided, the levy court shall in every such application, duly consider the convenience or inconvenience resulting to the public at large by the erection of such gate or gates. Gates may be erected, etc. Proviso

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent with this act, be and the same is hereby repealed. Inconsistent acts repealed.

CHAPTER 134.

An act to make valid Instruments of Writing acknowledged before, and Judgments rendered by William Haines, Esquire, one of the Justices of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Cecil County. Passed Feb 24, 1842.

WHEREAS, William Haines, Esquire, was duly appointed one of the justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, for the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, for the second election district of Cecil county, and as such was duly qualified to act, but afterwards moved into the third election district of said county, and continued to act as justice of the peace after his removal; and whereas, doubts are entertained whether the instruments of writing acknowledged before, and judgments rendered by the said William Haines, Esquire, after his removal from the second election district of said county be valid—therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all deeds and other instruments of writing, acknowledged before, and all judgments rendered by William Haines, Esquire, one of the justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Cecil county, after his removal from the second election district of said county, be and the same are hereby made as good and valid in law as though they had been acknowledged before, or rendered by any duly commissioned justice of the peace for said county. Acts made valid