

CHAP. 199. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the road so laid out and returned as aforesaid, the said new road shall be the division line between the counties of Worcester and Somerset, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Divisional line.

CHAPTER 199.

Passed March 3, 1842. An act to establish Magistrates Courts, in Prince George's County.

Act revived, etc.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such parts of the act to establish magistrates courts in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, passed December session eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, and of the supplements thereto, and amendments thereof as were in force and operation in Prince George's county at the commencement of March session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, be and the same are hereby revived and re-enacted, and shall have the same effect and operation in said county as if the act of March session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter twenty-nine, had not passed with the provisions and exceptions hereafter mentioned to wit: first, the justices of the said courts shall not be entitled to any per diem allowance for their services, but shall be entitled to the fees that may be received by them in the discharge of their duties, and said fees are hereby increased fifty per centum on the present charges; second, the county court shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases of which the said magistrates courts had jurisdiction by the said original act and supplements, and which were not before within the jurisdiction and cognizance of a single justice of the peace, and any plaintiff or plaintiffs may sue and recover in all such cases, either in the county court or in the proper district court.

In force first of May.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into operation on the first day of May next, and the justices of said courts shall thereafter be appointed as provided for when the said original act was repealed.