

CHAPTER 200.

CHAP. 200.

An act to abolish certain offices on the Eastern Shore of this State Passed March 3, 1842

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the constitution of this state, as provides for the appointment of a treasurer of the eastern shore, and register of the land office of the eastern shore of Maryland, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the several officers on the eastern shore of this state, who are authorized and directed, under existing laws to make payment and settlement of their respective accounts with the treasurer of the eastern shore, be and they are hereby directed, from and after the confirmation of this act, by the next legislature of this state, to make their payment and settlements, with the treasurer of the western shore who is hereby required to perform all and singular the duties that are now performed by the treasurer of the eastern shore of this state.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the duties which are now performed by register of the land office of the eastern shore, shall from and after the confirmation of this act by the next legislature, devolve on, and be performed by, the register of the land office of the western shore, and the said register of the land office of the western shore, shall be entitled to and receive the same office fees for said service, which the register of the land office of the eastern shore is now entitled to receive.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all laws or resolutions, fixing or allowing a compensation or salary to the said treasurer for the eastern shore, and the register of the land office of the eastern shore, or which may be in anywise inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no part of the salaries now paid to the said officers on the eastern shore, shall be hereafter given to the officers on the western shore who are charged with additional duties in consequence of the abolishment of said officers, nor shall their salaries in any manner be increased—therefore,

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be concurred in and approved of by the next general assembly of this state, the same shall be deemed and taken as a part of the constitution and form of government of this state, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.
