

CHAPTER 208.

CHAP. 210.

An act giving power to the Commissioners for Talbot County, to appoint annually a Collector of Direct Taxes in said County. Passed March 5, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners for Talbot county, be and they are hereby empowered, should they deem it necessary, to appoint in the month of August, and annually thereafter, a collector, whose duty it shall be to collect such taxes as may be levied under the act of March session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter twenty-three, and its several supplements; provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to the county collector, in the discharge of duties now required of him by existing enactments, except so far as the repeal of any part of the law of March session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter twenty-three, may be necessary to carry this act into effect. Commissioners to appoint collector

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any law or parts of any law conflicting with the first section of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repealed

CHAPTER 209.

An act to divorce Julia A. Stuart, of Worcester County, from her husband John W. Stuart. Passed March 5, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Julia A. Stuart, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband John W. Stuart, a vinculo matrimonii, and that the said Julia A. Stuart, be and she is hereby authorized to assume and use her maiden name Julia A. Powell. Divorced

CHAPTER 210.

An act to divorce Martha Tileston, of the City of Baltimore, from her husband William Tileston, and to grant the Guardianship of her Children. Passed March 5, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Divorced That Martha Tileston, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband William Tileston, a vinculo matrimonii, and the said Martha Tileston, be and she is hereby constituted