

chapter sixteen, of December session, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, requiring the appointment of a purveyor to the Maryland Penitentiary, be and the same are hereby repealed. CHAP. 217.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the duties heretofore imposed upon the purveyor aforesaid, shall hereafter be performed by the warden, or by the deputy warden under his direction. Duties performed by warden

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to authorise the payment of any perquisite, fee, or increase of salary to said warden or deputy warden, for the performance of said duties. No increase of salary

CHAPTER 216.

A supplement to the act enlarging the powers of the High Court of Chancery. Passed March 7, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said court shall have full power and authority on the application by bill or petition of a trustee appointed by said court to sell real estate, to compel the purchaser thereof to comply with all or any of the terms of such sale, by process of attachment or other execution suited to the case, or the said court upon such application may direct the property purchased to be resold at the risk of the purchaser, upon such terms as the court may direct, and in such case if the proceeds of the resale, after payment of the expenses thereof and of all costs of proceeding shall not be equal to the payment of the purchase money originally laid therefor, the said court may order and direct the difference to be paid by the said purchaser. Power of the court to sell

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the several county courts as courts of equity, shall have and exercise all the powers which are by this act vested in the court of chancery. Same power in county courts

CHAPTER 217.

An act for the relief of Sarah Henrietta Mayo, of Anne Arundel County. Passed March 5, 1842.

WHEREAS, two shares of the capital stock of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, were transferred to Sarah Henrietta Mayo, of Anne Arundel county, an infant of tender Preamble