CHAPTER 26.

An act to incorporate the Society of the Redeptorists of the City of Baltimore.

Passed Jan
20, 1842.

WHEREAS, the Reverend Alexander Czvilkovicz, the Reverend Simon Senderl, the Reverend Tscharkert and the Reverend Louis Karteyvebs, by their petition to this General Assembly, have set forth that they have emigrated to and settled in the city of Baltimore, in this State, and that each of them hath already declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, before a court of competent jurisdiction; that they have formed themselves into a society by the name of the Redeptorists, for religious, literary and charitable purposes, and have purchased in fee simple, a lot of ground on the east side of Aisquith street, in the city of Baltimore, near Saint James' church, upon which they propose to erect suitable buildings for the residence of themselves and their assistants, and for a school; and that they propose, when their means will permit, to extend their society by similar improvements in some other part of the city or State, and to apply their means, so far as may be possible, to gratuitous education; and they have prayed an act of incorporation for the more convenient holding and transmission of their property, which being reasonable, and in accordance with the previous policy of this State,—therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Alexander Czvilkovicz, Simon

Incorporated.
