

CHAPTER 225.

CHAP. 226.

An act to authorize Joseph B. Lancaster of Charles County, to make an improvement at the mouth of Neal's Creek. Passed March 7, 1842

WHEREAS, Joseph B. Lancaster of Charles county, is the owner of a tide mill at the mouth of Neal's Creek, and is desirous of contracting the mouth of said creek, to benefit his mill—therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph B. Lancaster of Charles county, be and he is hereby authorized to contract the mouth of Neal's Creek, for the benefit of his tide mill; provided, in making such contraction, an entrance at the mouth of said creek is left to the width of twenty-five feet; and provided also, that it does not prevent the navigation of said creek.

CHAPTER 226.

An act supplemental to an act entitled, an act for regulating the manner of Levying on the Assessable Property in Anne Arundel County, for the support of Primary Schools in said County, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter ninety-seven. Passed March 7, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be and is hereby declared to be the duty of each collector of the tax in Anne Arundel county, to keep a separate and distinct account of all monies collected or received by him under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and such collector shall deposit at least once a quarter, if not oftner, all such monies so received by him, in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, to the credit of the school commissioners of Anne Arundel county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That to insure the more certain compliance with the provisions of the first section of this act, it shall be and it is hereby declared to be the duty of each collector of the tax in Anne Arundel county, in making out his accounts for the collection of the tax levied upon the assessable property of the said county, to state in a separate item on each and every such account, the amount assessed as school tax, and any and every such collector failing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be liable to such forfeitures and penalties as are in like cases provided for in reference to the collection of county charges.
