CHAPTER 234.

An act for the relief of the Heirs of William D. Bell, of Passed March 7, 1842.
Washington County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Judge may decree.
 That any one of the judges of Washington county court, either during the session of the court or in the recess, may upon the petition of the heirs of said William D. Bell and others, parties in interest, order and adjudge, that the lands heretofore sold by the said William D. Bell, but not conveyed, be conveyed to the persons respectively entitled to the same, and the said judge being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise, that the facts stated in such petition are true, may decree upon the same without answer; provided, that all the Proviso parties in interest join in said petition, as well infants by their guardians or next friend, as others and the said judge shall appoint a trustee to convey the lands ordered and decreed to be conveyed.

CHAPTER 235.

An act to make valid a Deed therein mentioned. Passed March 4, 1842

WHEREAS, a deed was heretofore made and executed by William D. Crouch and Harriet A. Crouch his wife, to Preamble.
 Frisby Price and James W. Price, for part of a tract of land called "Cumberwell," lying and being in Queen Ann's county, in the State of Maryland, and acknowledged on the seventeenth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and forty, before Barnett Thomas, one of the justices of the peace in and for Clark county in the State of Illinois, as appears by certificate endorsed thereon by the clerk; and whereas, the proper date was inadvertently omitted to be inserted in the body of said deed, and the deed has not been
