Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Time allow^d
That Thomas Lusby, late sheriff and collector of Kent county, be and he is hereby authorized to collect until the first January, eighteen hundred and forty-four, all fines, forfeitures, amercements, officers fees and public dues, which were placed in his hands for collection, and which have not been collected, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law.

CHAPTER 256.

A supplement to the act entitled, an act to aid in the establishment of a Female Seminary, in Frederick City. Passed Jan 19, 1842.

Preamble.
WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly that John Brunner, of Jacob, was intended to be appointed one of the commissioners under said act, so as to have five commissioners instead of four, and that his name was in fact inserted in the original draft of said act, but by some mistake was omitted or left out of the engrossed bill, and the said John Brunner as also the other commissioners, who are now acting as such under the regular and proper appointment made by and under said law, being under that impression, he the said Brunner did together with said commissioners, enter into bond to the State of Maryland, as required by the several sections of said act, to which this is a supplement; and whereas, it is further represented, that it is desirable that the said board of commissioners should consist of five instead of four persons, so that the act or acts of a majority may be binding—therefore.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Additional commissioner
That the said John Brunner, of Jacob, be and he is hereby appointed an additional commissioner to the four commissioners who are now acting under said original act, with the same powers and rights conferred on either
