

CHAP. 261. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all persons offending against the provisions of this act, shall be proceeded against by indictment in Harford county court, and Baltimore county court, as for other misdemeanors; and if any person is seen in any of the waters aforesaid, in any boat, craft or vessel of less than thirty tons burthen, with a gun, during the season for shooting ducks, the evidence of such fact shall be prima facie evidence that such person is guilty of offending against the first section of this act.

Fine and imprisonment. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person who shall aid or abet in any manner, by furnishing a boat, vessel or craft, or gun or amunition to any one for the purpose of shooting ducks against the provisions of this act; or who shall purchase ducks from any one who has shot them contrary to the provisions of this act, knowing that they were so unlawfully shot, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, on indictment in any county court, shall be fined and imprisoned, or either, at the discretion of the court.

Liabile to prosecution. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person offending against this act, may be prosecuted for the same at any time before the sitting of the county courts; provided, that the provisions and penalties of this act shall not apply to persons gunning in the day time with small fire-arms, except where an individual guns in said boats immediately along the ducking shores of any person or persons living or owning lands on said waters.

Confined to persons gunning at night. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the penalties and provisions of this act shall be confined exclusively to those persons paddling or gunning with either large or small fire-arms after night, except as is provided for in the fourth section aforesaid.
