

CHAP. 267

CHAPTER 266.

Passed March 9, 1842. A supplement to an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter three hundred and nine, and an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter two hundred forty-four.

Apply to every description of property. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the remedies which are given by the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter three hundred and nine, and the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter two hundred and forty-four, or by either of said acts of assembly, be and they shall apply and extend to every description of property and estate, whether real or personal, and to all manner of title and interest in or to any property or estate, whether legal or equitable, and that the said acts shall be so construed by all the courts of this State, in all actions now depending or which may at any time hereafter be instituted to recover damages under the said acts of assembly or either of them.

CHAPTER 267.

Passed March 2, 1842. An act to revive and continue an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland Society, promoting the culture of the Vine.

Preamble WHEREAS, it is represented that a revival and continuance of the charter of said society, will enable them to dispose of certain real estate, which belonged to them during the former existence of their charter, and it appearing reasonable that such facility should be granted—therefore,

Continued for two years. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland Society, for promoting the culture of the vine, be revived and continued from the expiration of the same, for and during the term of two years from the passage of this act, to enable them in their corporate name, to dispose of all the real and personal estate, belonging or in any wise appertaining to said society, and to settle finally, all the concerns of said company, the same as if said act had not expired.

Directors reduced to six. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That instead of the number of twelve directors as required by the fourth section of the
