CHAPTER 292.

passed March 8, 1842.

An act to incorporate the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage of Harford Conty.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of Maryland at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-one, chapter ninety-one, did incorporate the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Harford circuit parsonage, in the town of Abingdon; and whereas, the delapidated condition of said parsonage property, made it necessary to dispose of it and acquire other; and whereas, the General Assembly of Maryland, did by enactment on the sixth day of April, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter thirty-eight, authorize the aforesaid contemplated arrangement; and whereas, since the act of incorporation above mentioned was passed important changes have taken place in Harford circuit, and others are contemplated, consequent upon which it has been deemed necessary by the Methodist Episcopal Church of Harford circuit (having disposed of her old parsonage, and trustees thereto) to appoint a new board of trustees to take charge of and hold such property as may be acquired by said circuit as a parsonage; and whereas, on the twenty-third day of August, eighteen hundred and forty-one, the quarterly meeting conference of Harford circuit, did duly elect in accordance with the discipline and economy of the aforesaid church, William Allen, Benedict H. Hanson, Richard Webster, Harry D. Gough, Charles Gorsuch, James N. Henderson, James Stephenson, William
