

RESOLUTIONS.

1841.

tion of one hundred and two thousand, three hundred and thirteen souls, of which three thousand, one hundred and ninety-nine are slaves, making in federal numbers one hundred and one thousand and thirty-three; that Baltimore county has a population of thirty-two thousand and sixty-six souls, of which four thousand, three hundred and ninety-six are slaves, making in federal numbers thirty thousand, three hundred and seven; that Harford county has a population of seventeen thousand, one hundred and twenty souls, of which two thousand, six hundred and forty-three are slaves, making in federal numbers sixteen thousand and sixty-two; that Montgomery county has a population of fifteen thousand, four hundred and fifty-six souls, of which five thousand, one hundred and thirty-five are slaves, making in federal numbers thirteen thousand four hundred and two; that Prince George's county has a population of nineteen thousand five hundred and thirty-nine souls, of which ten thousand six hundred and thirty-six are slaves, making in federal numbers, fifteen thousand two hundred and eighty-four; that Saint Mary's county has a population of thirteen thousand two hundred and twenty-four souls, of which five thousand seven hundred and sixty-one are slaves, making in federal numbers ten thousand nine hundred and nineteen; that Charles county has a population of sixteen thousand and twenty-three souls, of which nine thousand one hundred and eighty-two are slaves, making in federal numbers, twelve thousand three hundred and forty-nine; that Calvert county has a population of nine thousand two hundred and twenty-nine souls, of which four thousand one hundred and seventy are slaves, making in federal numbers seven thousand and five hundred and sixty-one; that Anne Arundel county has a population of twenty-nine thousand five hundred and thirty-two souls, of which nine thousand eight hundred and nineteen are slaves, making in federal numbers, twenty-five thousand and six hundred and four; that Cecil county has a population of seventeen thousand two hundred and thirty-two souls, of which thirteen hundred and fifty-two are slaves, making in federal numbers sixteen thousand six hundred and ninety-one; that Kent county has a population of ten thousand eight hundred and forty-two souls, of which twenty-seven hundred and thirty-five are slaves, making in federal numbers, nine thousand seven hundred and forty-eight; that Caroline county has a population of seven thousand eight hundred and six souls, of which seven hundred and fifty-two are slaves, making in federal numbers seven thousand five hundred and five; that Talbot county has a population of twelve thousand and ninety souls, of which three thousand