

Chap. Sec.

BIENNIAL SESSIONS OF THE

LEGISLATURE—Constitutional provisions relating to annual elections of delegates, to remain in force until the first election under this law, officers to be then appointed biennially, &c. 214 6

Salary of the governor not to be increased nor diminished during the time for which he is elected, “ 7

If confirmed to become a part of the constitution, &c. “ 8

At the next annual election of delegates the judges of elections to inquire of each voter whether he is for or against biennial sessions, &c. “ 9

BILL BROKERS—See Stock Brokers, &c.

BONDS. See State Bonds.

BRIDGES See Frederick county; St. Mary's county; Triadelphia Factory; Snell's Bridge; Baltimore county.

BRYAN, WILLIAM, OF R.—Levy court of Prince George's county, to levy and pay to, such sums as he may have paid for taxes on land he was not proprietor of, &c. 196 1

To make levies for the use of other persons, under like circumstances, &c. “ 2

BUSH AND GUNPOWDER RIVERS—See Ducks; Baltimore and Port Deposit Rail Road Company.

BUSINESS, DESPATCH OF—See Baltimore county.

C.

CANTON COMPANY OF BALTIMORE—A further supplement to the act of 1828, ch. 159, to incorporate, 69

CAPLES, MARY, WIDOW OF JACOB, COLLECTOR OF TAXES BALTIMORE CO.—Authorized to collect the taxes of, &c. 276

CAROLINE COUNTY—The 16th sec. of the act of 1834, ch. 212, repealed, as requires the register of wills of, to record reports and returns of the commissioners of the free and charity school of, to the orphans court of, &c. and so much of the 7th sec. of