

Chap. Sec.

Chap. Sec.

262 5

lector of the county, in favor of the trustees of primary school number 1, for $200 to be applied to the payment of the salary of Ann S. Morris for 1840.

2

CHARLES CO.—Trustees of school district number 1 for, to report to orphans court, length of time a teacher was employed in said district in 1841, and sum due, &c. justices of orphans court after said report, to draw in favor of trustees, &c. for sum due said teacher, &c.

171

See Small Debts.

The county court of, to have concurrent jurisdiction with the magistrates courts in all actions of replevin, trespass, trover, assault and battery.

193

1

Justices of magistrates courts not to be entitled to any per diem, but to be entitled to all fees that may be received, &c.

"

2

Acts inconsistent with these provisions repealed as relate to, &c.

"

3

216

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL—See Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company; Currency.

CHESAPEAKE STEAM SAW MILL COMPANY—Incorporated.

261

CHESTERTOWN—An act supplementary to the act of 1836, ch. 250, granting to the commissioners of, a certain lot of ground, &c.

66

315

CHEW, PHILEMON, REGISTER OF WILLS OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY—See Prince George's County.

318 2

CITY BANK OF BALTIMORE—The additional supplement to establish the, passed 1834, ch. 93, to direct said bank to wind up its affairs, &c. revived.

42

1

All acts done after said supplement expired in conformity with original act, to have same effect as if said acts had not expired, &c. this act to have no effect if said bank transact any other business than necessary to wind up, &c. right reserved to General Assembly to repeal this act, &c.

"

2

254

CLARK, ELEANOR AND JOHN—See Bevans, Ann.

CLARK, ELIZA A.—Divorced a vinculo matrimonii.

179

CLERK OF KENT COUNTY—See Copper, Jane.