

	Chap.	Sec.
JUDGE OF THE LAND OFFICE, EASTERN SHORE.
The 5th sec. of the act of 1795, ch. 61, providing for the appoint of, repealed.	318	1
Chancellor to perform the duties of, &c.	“	2
Inconsistent acts, &c. repealed.	“	3
JUDGMENTS —See Justices of the Peace .
JURORS AND WITNESSES —See Worcester County .
JUSTICES OF THE PEACE —See Haines, William; Kent County; Gore, Philip .
All judgments rendered by any justice of the peace on which the warrant made the same returnable, justice issuing the same or some other justice without mentioning any other justice by name, declared to be good and valid judgments, &c. not to affect judgments rendered prior, &c. which prior to this act shall have been reversed on appeal to county court.	139	1
In all cases now pending, &c. no exception to be taken to the form of warrants, &c.	“	2
All sales under executions, rendered in cases in which warrants was made returnable as aforesaid, to have same effect as if said warrant had been in due form, &c.	“	3
JUVENILE DELINQUENTS —A supplement to the act to establish a house of refuge for, authorizing the managers to return to contributors the monies furnished towards erecting, or apply the same as the contributors may direct.	3	1
Where no monies are returned and no application directed, managers to appropriate as shall have been directed, and their own contributions by a majority in amount of those so directing, &c.	“	2

K.

KENT COUNTY —Levy court of, to levy for the use of crier of the court of, $150.	25	1
The sum so levied to be in full for all fees arising in criminal cases, &c. crier to attend the sittings of the county court and levy courts.	“	2
The act to establish magistrates courts in		