

FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

1841.

CHAPTER 51.

CHAP. 52.

An act to authorize Eli Hewit, of Carroll County, to change the location of a certain Road in said County.

Passed Feb 2, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Eli Hewit, of Carroll county, be, and he is hereby empowered, at his own cost, to alter so much of the public road leading from Westminster, Carroll county, to the city of Washington, District of Columbia, as passes through his land, and the land of the heirs of the late Ruth Owings, commencing for the same, at or near a stone marked with the letter I, said stone standing near to, and south of the White Marsh, and running thence south, between the lands of Eli Hewit, and the lands of Samuel Stevenson, and thence between the lands of the heirs of James Hood, and the lands of the heirs of Ruth Owings, until said route or road intersects the bed of the present road.

Authorized to alter public road

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Eli Hewit, shall return to the commissioners of tax for Carroll county, an exact plat of the alteration in said road, to be filed in said office.

Return to be made

CHAPTER 52.

An act to quiet titles to Real Estate, in the Town of Frostburg, in Allegany County, and for other purposes.

Passed Feb 2, 1842.

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly, that sundry dwelling houses, porches, porticoes and other appurtenances to said dwellings, stand and are situated, in whole or in part, on the public grounds, in said town—therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no owner or occupant of any dwelling house, porch, portico or other appurtenances thereto, standing or being, in whole or in part, on the public grounds in said town, shall be subject or liable to any suit, presentment, or other legal process or prosecution, because of, or in consequence of any such house, porch, portico or other appurtenance thereto, standing or being, in whole or in part, on the public grounds in said town.

Property on public ground liable to suit

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any owner of any dwelling house in said town, which may have been built on a plan which renders it necessary or convenient to have attached to the same, a porch, portico or other

Permit to erect porches, etc.