

CHAPTER 55.

CHAP. 57.

An act further to extend the time allowed Samuel Fowler, former Sheriff of Prince George's County, to complete his collections. Passed Feb 2, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Time extended
That the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty, chapter one hundred and fifty, allowing Samuel Fowler, former sheriff of Prince George's county, further time to complete collections, be and the same is hereby extended to January, eighteen hundred and forty-three.

CHAPTER 56.

An act relating to out Pensioners, in Prince George's County. Passed Feb 2, 1842.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Who are not to be out pensioners.
That no person shall be placed on the list of out pensioners in Prince George's county, who is able to obtain a livelihood by application to any honest and lawful employment, or who has not for two years immediately preceding his or her application, been a resident of the county aforesaid, or who is in the habit of debasing himself or herself by intoxication or other demoralizing vice.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, To discontinue
That the levy court of the said county shall carefully examine and revise the list of out pensioners, and discontinue all whose cases do not come within the provisions of the preceding section.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, Not to be placed on list
That every person shall have the right to petition the levy court, to be placed on the said list, and it shall be their duty to examine his or her application, according to the provisions of this law.

CHAPTER 57.

An act to divorce Sarah Elliott, of the City of Baltimore, from her husband Grafton W. Elliott. Passed Feb 3, 1842.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Divorced.
That Sarah Elliott be, and she is hereby divorced from her husband Grafton W. Elliott, a vinculo matrimonii.