An act to allow Henry Harding, late Sheriff and Collector of Montgomery County, further time to complete his collections.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Harding, late sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, by himself or any person or persons by him appointed for this purpose, is now and are hereby authorized and empowered to collect, until the last day of December, eighteen hundred and forty three, all sums and balances due him as sheriff and collector of Montgomery county, in the same manner which the said Henry Harding could or might have done within the time limited by law, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Henry Harding, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons, for taxes, public dues or officers fees, in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons, chargeable with the same, at least thirty days previous to the levying such execution or distress, an account written in words in full length, of the taxes, public dues or officers fees demanded of him, her or them, with an affidavit annexed thereto, that he hath not received any part thereof, nor any thing in security or satisfaction for the same, more than the credits given, to the best of his knowledge; provided, that no person shall be required to pay any taxes under this act who will make oath before a justice of the peace that the taxes claimed have been paid, or where the person is dead, if the heir, executor or administrator or assign will make oath as aforesaid, that he or she believes the said taxes have been paid.
