

CHAP. 116. ment, and confirmation of said valuations, a tax shall be laid as prescribed by the forty-fifth section.

Time extended for making payment into the treasury

Provisoos

Where time is extended, one-half is to be paid by the first of December, and the residue by the first of March 1843.

Sheriff to act as collector, in case of vacancy

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in all the counties, cities, and districts, wherein the assessments have been or may be made and returned according to the provisions of said act, the time for payment into the treasury of the first quarter of said taxes is extended to the first day of June next, so that one half at least of the present years taxes shall be collected and paid into the treasury by that day, and the remainder shall be collected and paid into the treasury on the first days of September and December, as required by the forty-sixth and forty-seventh sections of said act; provided however, that for the city of Baltimore, one fourth of the taxes for eighteen hundred and forty-one, shall be collected and paid into the treasury of the western shore, by the first Wednesday of June next, and the remainder on the first Wednesday of July, August, September, October and December, and for the year eighteen hundred and forty-two, one fourth of the taxes shall be collected and paid into the treasury by the first Wednesdays of August, September, October and December, and after the present year said taxes shall be collected and paid in March, June, September and December, as required by said act; provided however, that the penalties imposed by the forty-eighth, are hereby postponed, until the expiration of one month from the first day of June next, and shall afterwards be enforced according to the provisions of that section.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That as to all those counties, cities and districts, wherein further time is allowed under the first section of this act, the collectors shall be and they are hereby required to collect and return to the treasury at least one half of the taxes to be levied in said county, city, or district for the present year, on or before the first day of December next, and the residue thereof on or before the first day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-three; so that the present year's taxes shall be fully collected and paid by said month of March, eighteen hundred and forty-three, subject to the penalties imposed by the said original act.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case any person who has been or may be appointed collector has refused or may hereafter refuse to accept said trust, the sheriff of the county, district, or city as the case may be, and is hereby authorized to perform the duties required of the collectors, unless a new appointment of collector shall be made within twenty days after the passage of this act, where a vacancy already exists, or within twenty days after any such refusal shall be signified to the proper appointing power, and said

sheriff shall execute the provisions of the act, and for his collection to the for

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That under the provisions of said act, shall be

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the collectors and assessors of the city of Baltimore shall extend to every description of property under the said act, and assessment and duty they are on the assessors their valuation and which valuation provided for in which this is

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the sixty-first section of the act are hereby repealed, and the taxes shall be liable to tax and taxed according to the original act, a

An act to authorize Michael Groff to convey a ce

WHEREAS, the assembly, that the in the borough of the lot owned by the Church, in the proceeds of such sale—therefor

Be it enacted by the assembly, that Richard Gilchrist and John Allison and John Copal Church