

CHAP. 144. sum of money not exceeding three hundred dollars, upon the assessable property of said district, to be applied to the purpose of completing a public road running from Montgomery road to Old Rolling Road, opposite the Folly Gate; provided, the commissioners shall believe that the application of such sum of money is expedient.

Proviso.

---

CHAPTER 143.

Passed March 1, 1843. An act for the benefit of the heirs of James Healy, of Harford County.

Orphan's Court to pay over, &c. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Orphan's Court of Harford county are hereby authorized and required to pay over to Elizabeth Healy, widow of James Healy, late of said county deceased, such amount of money as the said James Healy was entitled to receive as his proportion of the school fund for educating poor children, and that the said widow is hereby authorized to receive and distribute among the heirs said money in like manner as the administrator of the said James Healy would have been authorized and required to receive and distribute the same.

---

CHAPTER 144.

Passed Feb. 27, 1843. An act for the benefit of Abraham Wilhelm and others.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly that a judgment has been entered on the records of St. Mary's county court, in favor of the State of Maryland, against Abraham Wilhelm, John H. Milburn and others, as securities of the said Abraham, for the sum of two hundred and sixty-three dollars and thirty-three cents, with interest from the first day of July eighteen hundred and thirty-eight; and whereas it is also represented that the said Abraham, principal in said judgment, is unable to pay the same, but that said judgment is a lien upon ample property of the securities for its payment; and whereas an execution has been issued on said judgment, and to press an execution at this time would lead to a sacrifice of the property of said securities—therefore,