

CHAP. 174. are now recovered, and if over fifty dollars, by action in the county court of the county where the injury was committed.

No person to obstruct outlet lock, &c.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no person or persons shall anchor or place any vessel or other thing so near the outlet locks as to obstruct or impede the use of such outlet locks, nor shall any person build or erect on or against the tow-path or embankment of said company, any house, shed, wharf or other fixtures, and any person or persons offending against the provisions of this section, shall pay to the company the sum of twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered by said company in all respects as small debts are recovered.

Company may remove obstructions.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said company by its officers, agents and servants, may remove any of the obstructions or fixtures prohibited by this act, and the said company may prescribe such penalties for the violation of its bye-law as may be necessary to enforce a compliance therewith; provided, no penalty for a single offence shall exceed twenty dollars, except offences in regard to tolls which is hereinbefore provided.

Proviso.

Company may arrest, &c.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any person who has violated any of the provisions of this act, or any of the bye-laws made in pursuance thereof shall be about to leave this State, it shall be lawful for the said company by its officers, agents or servants, to arrest such person, carrying him before a justice of the peace, whose duty it shall be to commit such person to answer the offence alledged against him, unless such person give sufficient bail to appear and answer as the justice shall direct, and the said company as a further means to prevent persons from absconding who have violated any of the provisions of this act, may by its officers, agents and servants, seize the boat, raft or other craft of such person, and detain the same till the person so offending shall have answered, in the due course of law for such offence.

Recovered as all other small debts are.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all fines and penalties enforced by this act, the collections and enforcements of which is not herein otherwise provided for, shall be recovered in the name of the company or the party aggrieved, before a single justice of the peace as small debts are now recovered.

Not to interfere with outlet at Bell's Ferry.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights heretofore granted for building an outlet lock at or near Bell's Ferry.