

CHAP. 215. quisition; and any resolutions or proceedings passed or had at such meeting, by not less than two-thirds of the members who shall be present, shall be binding on the president and directors and members of the company.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That this charter shall be in full force and effect until the first Monday in January eighteen hundred and ninety.

Directors to ascertain loss, &c.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That whenever a loss shall occur which the said company are liable to pay, it shall be the duty of the directors at their next meeting after they shall have been notified of said loss, to cause an accurate statement to be made of the proportion or sum to be contributed by each member, to make good the said loss to the person having sustained said loss, and to notify the members of said corporation of the same, and if at the expiration of sixty days from the date of such notice any member of said corporation shall have failed to pay his contribution aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said board of directors upon filing such statement in the office of the clerk of Harford or Baltimore county if such defaulting member or members shall reside in Baltimore county, to cause execution to issue for the said proportion in the same manner as if a judgment had been rendered for the same together with all casts incident to such proceeding.

Right reserved.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the legislature reserves to itself the right to change alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 215.

Passed March 2, 1843.

An act to regulate the itinerant charges of Jurors and Commissioners of Washington County.

Allowed ten cents per mile.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, each commissioner and juror of said county shall be entitled and allowed ten cents for each and every mile over ten miles in coming to and going from the place where their official duties require their attendance, and it is expressly understood that this act shall not be so construed as to authorise a charge for more than once going and returning to the same term or session, or to the place of duty under any appointments made by the commissioner upon roads.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That all former laws in relation to the itinerancy of said jurors and commissioners, are hereby repealed.