

CHAP. 233. and also an account of all articles purchased for or on account of said trustees, and in such account shall be specified, by stating the articles sold, and the price received, and in the account of purchases shall be stated each article purchased, the price paid, or to be paid, and from whom purchased, and the accounts required by this act shall be verified by the oath of the supervisor, and returned to the commissioners of said county, in the month of March in every year, and the said commissioners shall cause a copy of such accounts, to be set up at the place of holding the elections in each election district.

Trustees to cause list of paupers to be kept.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees of the poor, shall cause a list of the paupers in the alms house of said county to be kept for each year, stating the name of each pauper, when he or she came to the alms house, and when he or she left or died, and stating how many paupers were in said institution at the beginning and end of each year, which list shall be returned in the month of March in each year to the commissioners.

Omission to perform duties required by this act declared a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners, trustees or supervisor, or any of them shall omit to perform the duties required by this act, such omission shall be and is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and the person so offending shall be liable to indictment and conviction in the county court, and the judges of the county court are hereby required to give this act in charge to the grand jury.

CHAPTER 233.

Passed March 7, 1843.

An act for the Classification of the Business of the County Court of Washington County.

County court to classify the business of said court.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the county court of Washington county shall classify the business of said court as follows: The said court shall devote the first week of each term exclusively to the trial of cases on the civil docket, and the first three days of the second week of the term to the trial of cases on the criminal docket; that appeals from the decisions of magistrates shall be taken up on the morning of the second Thursday of each term, and the trials of such appeals upon the docket shall be finished before any other business is done in said court; provided, the criminal cases shall all have been tried Proviso.